brief respite in the fighting, he made a daring attempt to rescue a Marine who was trapped in a building. In the midst of the chaos, he crawled to the Marine and pulled him to safety. The Marine, however, was seriously injured and needed immediate medical attention.

Chaplain Liteky's actions were recognized by the United States Marine Corps. For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty, he was awarded the Medal of Honor. His bravery and devotion to duty were in the finest tradition of the military service.

LONG, DONALD RUSSELL

Rank and organization: Sergeant, United States Army, Troop C, 1st Squadron, 4th Cavalry, 1st Infantry Division. Place and date: Republic of Vietnam, 30 June 1966. Entered service at: Ashland, Ky. Date and place of birth: August 27, 1939, Blackford, Ohio. G.O. No.: 13, 4 April 1968. Citation: For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity in action at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty. On 30 June 1966, Troops B and C, 1st Squadron, 4th Cavalry, while conducting a reconnaissance mission along a road in the Republic of Vietnam, were suddenly attacked by a Viet Cong regiment, supported by mortars, recoilless rifles, and machine guns, from concealed positions astride the road. Sergeant Long abandoned the relative safety of his armored personnel carrier and bravely withstood the heavy volume of enemy fire to carry wounded men to evacuation helicopters. At the very moment it seemed he had lost all hope of reaching the safety of his armored vehicle, Sergeant Long continued to ford the stream, pushing through the rising water to reach the safety of the nearest available vehicle. His actions were in accordance with the highest traditions of arms.
